THE HILARIOUS DAY-IN-THE-LIFE OF A MISCHIEVOUS AND LOVEABLE 8-YEAR-OLD BOY!

Zak is an ordinary, joyful and very optimistic boy who happens to be eminently likeable.

Endowed with an overflowing imagination, he never runs out of clever ways to take-on the challenges every 8-year-old kid has to face. School, street and home are all perfect settings for this kind and inventive little trouble-maker. In this sitcom we follow Zak and his friends in their everyday lives: trying to get invited to a birthday party he has been excluded from, getting around a television ban, dressing up for Halloween...

Although Zak wants to be on the right track, the schemes he dreams up with his friends always end in a maelstrom of mischief... and laughs!

- ▶ Based on a comic strip published in multiple children's magazines worldwide
- ▶ A funny and lively sitcom focusing on children's daily lives
- ▶ Understanding with fun that each action has a consequence
